

letters to the editor

---

Kudos for Tax Analysts

To the Editor:

I want to join the ranks of what I expect is a large number of practicing tax advisors who have long been riding on the coattails of Tax Analysts and its founder, Tom Field. I was delighted to see the article by Marshall and Field, "The Guidance Deficit: An Update," Tax Notes, Feb. 23, 1998, p. 1049, as well as Tom Field's open "Letter to Practitioners" that also appeared in Tax Notes, Feb. 23, 1998, p. 1062. As most professionals know, Tax Analysts spearheaded the disclosure effort to begin with, and I know has long been engaged in this continuing fight.

For those of us who do the more mundane things in tax law, I have always been amazed by Tom and many others at Tax Analysts who take on this cause all for the good of the profession and the fair(er) administration of our tax system. Bravo!

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Wood
San Francisco
February 25, 1998